The "Ergathon" is Capital City Rowing's annual fundraiser. All athletes solicit pledges from family, friends, local businesses, etc., and then "erg" in shifts. An "erg" is short for ergometer, the rowing machine we use for training and fitness.

Rowing is one of the most expensive of all high school sports. Boats can cost as much or more than a car. Although we are a public team, we receive almost no public funding. To pay for all of this, the team relies heavily on its members and donors for fundraising support. We can't do what we do without people like you. Join us to be partners in making an impact on our boys and girls right here in our local community.
